Rex Hospital and Wake Radiology Seek Approval for Diagnostic Centers

RALEIGH – Rex Hospital and Browning Equipment SPE, LLC, a limited liability company wholly owned by Wake Radiology, have filed two Certificate of Need applications with the N.C. Department of Health and Human Services seeking approval to develop new diagnostic centers.

One of the proposed diagnostic centers would be at the same site as an existing provider-based outpatient imaging center, currently known as Rex Breast Care Center, 3100 Duraleigh Road, Suite 204, Raleigh. The project is expected to cost $48,000 and to be completed in January 2018.

The other proposed diagnostic center would be completed through the contribution of an existing provider-based mobile MRI unit. The project is expected to cost $47,000 and to be completed in January 2018.

A public hearing for both projects will be held Tuesday, March 14 at 10 a.m. in Conference Room 104 of the Brown Building, 801 Biggs Drive on the Dorothea Dix Campus, Raleigh.

Anyone may file written comments concerning these proposals. Comments must be received by the Healthcare Planning and Certificate of Need Section no later than 5:30 p.m. Friday, March 3.
