Dear Ms. Honeycutt:

The Certificate of Need Section (CON Section) received your letter of April 17, 2013 regarding the above referenced proposal. Based on the CON law in effect on the date of this response to your request, the proposal described in your correspondence is not governed by, and therefore, does not currently require a certificate of need. However, please note that if the CON law is subsequently amended such that the above referenced proposal would require a certificate of need, this determination does not authorize you to proceed to develop the above referenced proposal when the new law becomes effective.

Moreover, you need to contact the Construction Section of the Division of Health Service Regulation to determine if they have any requirements for the proposed project.

It should be noted that this determination is binding only for the facts represented by you. Consequently, if changes are made in the project or in the facts provided in your correspondence referenced above, a new determination as to whether a certificate of need is required would need to be made by the Certificate of Need Section.

Please contact the CON Section if you have any questions. Also, in all future correspondence you should reference the Facility I.D. # (FID) if the facility is licensed.

Sincerely,

Julie Halatek

Dear Julie,

Annabelle's Haven located in Burnsville, North Carolina will be a safe haven of twenty unit dwelling for women of domestic abuse. For one year it will be a bridge to assist women moving from the shelter life to the real world. Along with assisting with education, transportation, job readiness and life skills, the time spent here will allow them to not only survive but to thrive in the world. Annabelle's Haven will be partnering with the domestic abuse centers of: Yancey county's Family Violence Coalition, Mitchell's county Safe Place and Madison's county's Helpmate. It will be through these centers we will get our referrals. We will be partnering with local Health care providers of each county. We will be helping to empower the women and children so they break the cycle of domestic violence and can than begin to heal physically, mentally, emotionally. The program will partner with Mayland Community College and Job Link. Courses such as life skills, job skills, computer skills will improve their employ ability. By empower the women and their children only then can the cycle of abuse be able to end

I hope this answers all your questions.

Sincerely yours,
Mary Honeycutt
